NOTES:

- National BSA Policies concerning swimming and boating activities apply to any Pack Outing. These can be found in the "Guide to Safe Scouting". You can find the "Guide to Safe Scouting" online at the National BSA web site (www.scouting.org).
- Packs need to have one BALOO Trained Adult in attendance and submit a properly filled out Local Tour Permit to the Council Service Center a minimum of two weeks in advance for Pack Family Camping Trips.
- National Park Service and State Park Campgrounds must meet guidelines outlined on back of the Campsite Approval Form.

NOTE: If you would like to have an additional campsite considered for approval, please send your request to the Council Service Center, Attention Cub Committee. In general terms for a Campground to qualify it must offer full toilet and handicap accessible facilities.

This list may be updated and is available online at the SJAC web site: www.bsa-sjac.org.
