

CAMP SHENANDOAH

PACKING LIST FOR SCOUTS

Here is a suggested list of equipment a scout would need for a week at Camp.

- ◆ Completed and signed Medical Form
- ◆ Complete Boy Scout uniform
- ◆ Comfortable, appropriate shoes or boots—Flip Flops are not appropriate for Camp
- ◆ Pocketknife
- ◆ Wallet/money ($50 -$75 for Trading Post)
- ◆ Sleeping bag or blankets
- ◆ Flashlight with extra batteries
- ◆ Scout handbook
- ◆ Notebook with pencils/pens
- ◆ Merit badge books for classes
- ◆ Any pre-requisite work on merit badges
- ◆ T-shirts—scout appropriate
- ◆ Pants and/or shorts
- ◆ Socks (enough for a week)
- ◆ Underwear (enough for a week)
- ◆ Jacket (nights can be chilly)
- ◆ Raincoat or poncho with hood
- ◆ Sneakers
- ◆ Leather boots if taking Welding merit badge
- ◆ Swim trunks
- ◆ Wash cloth
- ◆ Towel (one for swimming too)
- ◆ Comb/brush
- ◆ Soap in waterproof container
- ◆ Shampoo
- ◆ Toothbrush and toothpaste
- ◆ Water bottle – stay hydrated

Optional/Comfort Items:

- ◆ Watch
- ◆ Camera
- ◆ Pillow
- ◆ Sunglasses
- ◆ Individual first aid kit
- ◆ Boy Scout Field Book
- ◆ Mosquito repellent
- ◆ Cord for clothesline
- ◆ Plastic ground cloth
- ◆ Bible or prayer book, according to faith

Extra items for Scouts taking the Wilderness Survival merit badge. While not mandatory, it makes the experience more enjoyable.

- ◆ Day or Frame Pack (carry personal items for over-night)
- ◆ Matches in waterproof case
- ◆ Plastic ground cloth
- ◆ Eating equipment—mess kit, silverware
- ◆ Water bottle

Additional items: Suggestions from Troop Leaders:

Parents: Be sure to label any personal items including clothing, handbooks with scout's name and troop number. This aids in the return of lost/found items.

Scoutmasters: Please share this this packing list with your scouts!

